

The logo for the journal 'Review of Economics of the Household' is a blue rectangular box with a white border. Inside the box, the text 'Review of Economics of the Household' is written in a red, serif font, centered and arranged in two lines.

Review of Economics of the Household

Call for Papers

Special Issue of the Review of Economics of the Household

on Intergenerational Transfers and Time Use

Kathleen McGarry (Stony Brook University and NBER) will be a key contributor to the special issue.

We welcome original research papers employing empirical and/or theoretical methodologies on the subject of “Intergenerational Transfers and Time Use”. Potential topics may include but are not limited to upward and downward monetary and in-kind transfers, time help involving at least two generations, childcare, parenting, parental investments in children, grandparenting, intergenerational transmission of abilities, traits, behaviors, and outcomes, intergenerational mobility, bequests, old age support, and long-term care.

Submission instructions: Papers should be submitted to the editorial manager of the Review of Economics of the Household (2022 Impact Factor: 5.1) by clicking on “Submit your manuscript” and selecting “Special Issue: Intergenerational Transfers and Time Use” under Collection: <https://link.springer.com/journal/11150>.

Submission deadline: 30 June, 2024

Special issue editor: Christine Ho (Singapore Management University)